FAST FACTS

Applicant Tracking Software (ATS) or, the robots that do an initial read of your resume,are able to eliminate 75% of applicants.
Some tips for "beating the bots":

• Simple formatting –e.g. columns may make your resume difficult to scan
• Boldface and capital letters for section headings
• Look for keywords from the Job Qualifications AND the Job Responsibilities
• Use jargon and acronyms specific to your industry
• Integrate specific skills (like software programs,etc) into your descriptions of internships/projects, in addition to listing them in a skills section.
